

The First Look

Fit – Is the item in your size or within one size up or down of your current size?

Flatter – Does the item flatter your body's silhouette?

Like – Do you really like it? I mean, really? Some items should be stored away separately from the clothes, as keepsakes or as gifts.

Accessories – Does the accessory work within your current style? Or, does the item require accessorizing so that it becomes part of a complete ensemble?

Color – Does the color of the item make you look fresh, happy and healthy or tired and ill?

Kerry – In the well-informed opinion of the stylist, can the item be altered or fixed so that it remains useful? Or is it a designer or vintage item that can be sold? Finally does the item express your current and up-to-date style?
